10. Important Notes

❑ Important Notes for Online Application

1. Application Deadline

- 1st Round: 2026. 9. 21.(Mon) ~ 10. 6.(Tue) (until 17:00, Korea Standard Time, KST)
- 2nd Round: 2026. 10. 20.(Tue) ~ 11. 20.(Fri) (until 17:00, Korea Standard Time, KST)

2. Applicants must carefully review this admissions guideline before applying to avoid any errors, and complete the application in accordance with the guidelines posted on the International Affairs Office website.

3. Applicants must ensure that all information entered is accurate. Once the application is submitted, no modifications can be made. The university shall not be responsible for any disadvantages caused by input errors, omissions, or inaccuracies.

4. Applicants must provide accurate contact information, including a reachable phone number. Any disadvantages resulting from failure to be contacted due to incorrect information will be the sole responsibility of the applicant.

5. The application will be considered complete only after both the online application form is submitted and the application fee is paid.

6. Changes to the applied program or department are not allowed after submission of the application.

7. All required documents listed on the online application system must be uploaded within the application period. Failure to submit required documents, or submission of unidentifiable documents, will result in disqualification. Any resulting disadvantages shall be the sole responsibility of the applicant.

8. When entering the applicant's name in English, the order must exactly match that shown on the passport (Last Name, First Name).

Example: The name must be entered in the same order as shown in the Machine Readable Zone (MRZ) at the bottom of the passport.

9. The name, date of birth, and other personal information entered in the online application must exactly match the information on the applicant's passport. This requirement also applies to all submitted documents, including family relationship certificates and graduation certificates.

❑ Important Notes for Applicants

1. The application fee and submitted original documents will not be returned.
2. Any bank transfer fees incurred for tuition or other refunds shall be borne by the applicant.
3. The results of the admission process (including evaluation scores, evaluation details, and reasons for rejection) will not be disclosed under any circumstances.
4. If any false information is found in the submitted documents, or if admission is obtained through fraudulent or improper means, the admission offer or enrollment will be revoked at any time, before or after admission.
5. During the admission period, applicants must regularly check the university's International Affairs Office website and their email, and follow all instructions. Any disadvantages resulting from failure to do so (e.g., cancellation of admission) shall be the applicant's responsibility.
6. Admission may be revoked even after acceptance if any of the following applies: the applicant is found ineligible, fraudulent practices such as document falsification or proxy interviews are discovered, or entry into the country is denied (e.g., visa rejection).
7. In addition to the submitted documents, the university may request additional documents if necessary for qualification screening. The International Affairs Office reserves the right to adjust the list of required documents at its discretion.
8. Even after the admission process is completed, additional documents may be required for visa issuance or status change.
9. The International Affairs Office will issue a Certificate of Admission only to students who have completed tuition payment and submitted all required original documents. The university does not guarantee visa issuance.
10. Department names may be subject to change depending on university circumstances, and any changes will be individually notified.
11. Applicants who are expected to graduate must submit their final academic certificate by February 22, 2027. Failure to do so will result in cancellation of admission.
12. Applicants must submit their visa application within 7 days of receiving the Certificate of Admission. The university shall not be held responsible for any disadvantages resulting from failure to meet this requirement.
13. Admission will be cancelled if the applicant fails to obtain a visa before the start of the semester or fails to enter Korea within three weeks after the start of the semester.

※ Exceptions may apply in cases of natural disasters, force majeure, or circumstances attributable to the local Korean diplomatic mission or the relevant Korean consular authority.

❑ Important Notes on Application Form and Required Documents

1. Only successful applicants are required to submit original documents by post or in person. Submission via email or other electronic means is strictly not permitted.

2. All submitted documents, forms, and translations must be in Korean or English. Documents issued overseas must be translated into Korean or English and notarized before submission.

※ All documents, including the application form, must be submitted as originals or as notarized translations with consular authentication or Apostille certification.

3. In principle, all submitted documents must be originals. If a document cannot be reissued, a notarized copy must be submitted along with a certification confirming that it is identical to the original.

4. All submitted documents and records will not be returned. (For documents required for visa application, such as academic or financial documents, applicants must prepare additional copies in advance.)

5. All documents must be submitted in the order listed. Any disadvantages resulting from incomplete documentation, alteration or forgery, errors or omissions, translation inaccuracies, failure to comply with the application guidelines, illegible documents, incorrect contact information (phone number, email, etc.), or any other fraudulent methods shall be the responsibility of the applicant (including cancellation of admission).

6. Applicants who do not possess valid language proficiency test scores at the time of application may still be eligible for a first-semester scholarship if they submit the original language test score report to the International Affairs Office by the last business day before the start of the semester (i.e., the last business day of the month prior to the semester start). (Prior consultation is required.)

❑ Interpretation of the Admissions Guidelines

1. The Korean version of these admissions guidelines shall be the original and governing version. In the event of any discrepancies in interpretation between the Korean version and translations in other languages, the Korean version shall prevail.

2. Any matters not specified in these guidelines shall be determined by the University Admissions Committee.

❑ International Student Insurance Enrollment

1. Before Alien Registration:

International students must enroll in a group insurance plan (coverage period: 12 months) arranged by the university. The insurance premium must be paid at the time of tuition payment (excluding those already residing in Korea).

2. After Alien Registration:

Students are mandatorily enrolled in the National Health Insurance and must pay the insurance premium for the following month by the 25th of each month.

In accordance with the National Health Insurance Act and its Enforcement Regulations, international students have been mandatorily enrolled as local subscribers of the National Health Insurance since

March 2021. (Enrollment is activated immediately upon completion of alien registration after entry into Korea.)
